MEMBERSHIP FORM

PLEASE JOIN US IN PRESERVING THE ICONS OF THE PAST

Since its establishment in 1979, the Lubbock Heritage Society has engaged in a variety of preservation activities in Lubbock. Visible evidence of the Society's commitment to historic preservation are the Mast-White House, at 2301 Broadway, the Heritage House at 2306-18th Street, St. Paul-on-the-Plains Church at the Lubbock Memorial Arboretum, Lubbock Landmark Designation at Lawson's Roller Rink at 2nd and University, and, our latest preservation project, the currently in progress restoration of the Underwood Pullman train car located at the Bayer Museum of Agriculture. Annual membership in the Lubbock Heritage Society includes participation in all LHS events.
